Information for Participants

Our commitment

To ensure that we provide training and assessment services that meet the needs of clients and industry, we employ sufficient suitably qualified and experienced Trainers, secure suitable facilities, ensure sufficient opportunities for learning in appropriate environments, with suitable resource and assessment that is fair and flexible.

Prior to commencement—should Elite Truck and Car School cancel training before it commences, you will be offered alternate dates (if the training is being rescheduled). If the training is not rescheduled or the dates offered do not suit you, all fees paid you will be refunded in full within 10 days of the training being cancelled.

For training that has commenced—In the unlikely event that Elite Truck and Car School is unable to deliver the training, you will be offered the option to enrol with another RTO and Elite Truck and Car School will assist in both finding a suitable RTO and in the transition to the new RTO. Any fees paid in advance held by the RTO and not attributed to training completed will be refunded and a statement of attainment issued for any units successfully completed.

Our service commitment

- Your questions are important to us. Please be aware that our Trainers are working with other Participants as well as yourself. We are committed to returning your calls and emails but we ask that you allow us two (2) working days to respond.
- Assessment feedback will be given within 10 working days of our receiving the assessment in the office (not from the day it is posted).
- Statements of Attainment/Qualifications are issued within thirty (30) calendar days of your completion.

Access and Equity

Based on the Access and Equity Policy for the Vocational Education and Training System Elite Truck and Car School will deliver training that is:

- Equitable for all people through the fair allocation of resources and involvement in Vocational Education and Training
- Providing equal opportunity for all Participants
- Providing access for all to appropriate quality Vocational Education and Training programs and services
- Providing support services which enhance achievement of positive outcomes

Unique Student Identifier

Every participant, new or continuing required to supply Elite Truck and Car School with their Unique Student Identifier (USI) as of 1st January 2015. The USI is required at the time of enrolment.

We are unable accept enrolments without this number or notification of an exemption.

The purpose of the USI is to enable the collection and storage of your records of participation in vocational education and training on a central database. Allowing you easy access to your records. In the event that you are unable or unwilling to get a USI please visit the following website for further information on what to do to be able to participate in training.

For more information, to apply for you USI or apply for an exemption go to:
<http://usi.gov.au/Training-Organisations/Pages/how-students-create-usis.aspx>

Step 1 You will need to get one form of ID from the list below ready:

Medicare Card

Australian Passport

Visa (with Non-Australian Passport) for international students

Birth Certificate (Australian) *please note a Birth Certificate extract is not sufficient

Certificate of Registration by Descent

Citizenship Certificate

ImmiCard

IMPORTANT: The details a student enters when they create their USI must match exactly with those shown on the ID.

More information on proof of ID and different types.

Step 2 Then go to 'Create your USI' on the USI website and agree to the Terms and Conditions.

Step 3 Then click on 'Create USI'.

Step 4 Then fill in some personal and contact details which must match exactly the details shown on your ID.

Step 5 You will then be asked to enter the details from you ID from the list above.

Step 6 You will be required to set their USI account password and questions for security purposes.

More information about security check questions can be found on the Student USI check questions page.

Step 7 Your USI will be displayed on the screen.

Step 8 You should write down your USI somewhere safe or enter it into their phone for safe keeping.

Step 9 Students will also receive their USI by either email, phone or by mailing address (which ever they chose as their preferred contact method when creating their USI)

Admission and Entry Requirements

Elite Truck and Car School requires that the participant can:

- Obtain a USI or evidence of an exemption
- Read and interpret workplace documentation
- Speak clearly and unambiguously in English
- Writing is required to the level of completing workplace forms

Access and Equity

Elite Truck and Car School upholds the principle that all applicants seeking to enrol are treated fairly and equitably and ensure that throughout the process of selection and admission, applicants are treated courteously and expeditiously.

Elite Truck and Car School reserves the right to suspend from their training courses participants who are:

- Unable to actively participate in the course activities as a result of injury.
- Disruptive
- Affected by drugs or alcohol

Should this situation arise, immediate and discreet contact will be made with the client to discuss future training options for the individual(s) concerned.

Expectations of Participants

- To avoid any confusion in the future, the following expectations of behaviour are provided. Compliance with these expectations is required by all Participants, failure to do so may result in cancellation of your enrolment.
- Abide by Copyright and Plagiarism laws and legislation.
- Comply with workplace health and safety regulations at all times.
- Comply with anti-discrimination legislation at all times. This includes but is not limited to equal opportunity, racial vilification and disability discrimination.
- Comply with workplace harassment, victimisation and bullying regulations at all times.
- Ensure that behaviour is of a level acceptable to the workplace at all times.
- Complete training and assessment activities within agreed timeframes.
- Communicate any difficulties with completion of activities or assessment with your Trainer.
- Inform your Trainer immediately should you be unable to attend due to illness or other reasons.
- Inform your Trainer if you have a medical condition that may affect your participation or affect those with whom you may be training.

Participant Support

Elite Truck and Car School is dedicated to providing a high standard of service to Participants. You can contact your Trainer by phone, email or post during office hours. We endeavour to respond to Participants as quickly as possible but you are reminded that our Trainers do have other Participants and classes to attend to. We will provide feedback on Assessments within ten (10) working days and to all queries, telephone calls and emails within two (2) working days.

Should you require further support, Elite Truck and Car School can assist in identifying the appropriate support service as well as organising access to such services. Services referred to may include but are not limited to language, literacy and numeracy, counselling, etc. It should be noted that such services may attract an additional fee to be paid to the service provider. Such fees are the responsibility of the Participant.

Should you or your trainer/assessor identify that you require any additional support, to be provided by Elite Truck and Car School we will work with you to develop an Individual Support plan to ensure that we can provide the required support required.

Training Materials and Equipment

During training, Elite Truck and Car School participants will be given access to safety equipment and other required material and equipment. This equipment and material is to be used in accordance with the instructions given by the trainer/assessor. If a piece of equipment is purposely damaged or treated in a manner not in accordance with the instructions given by the trainer, a fee may be charged.

The copyright and ownership of all training material provided during the training belongs to with Elite Truck and Car School and cannot be copied or claimed without written consent. All training materials are quality assured and are continuously updated.

Refund Policy

- $50 of your fees is an administration, non-refundable fee
- Elite Truck and Car School does not collect fees of more than $1500 in advance
- Once training has commenced in the course, no refund is available to participants who leave before finishing the course unless the Participant can provide a medical certificate or show extreme personal hardship.
- Should Elite Truck and Car School cancel the course, participants are entitled to a full refund (or prorated adjusted refund) or to transfer to another/future course. In this event Participants will be given their preferred option.

- If you cancel more than 48 hours prior to commencement you will receive a refund of all fees except the administration fee.
- If you cancel with less than 48 hours' notice you will receive a 50 % refund on fees paid in advance. The $50 administration fee will also be payable.

Competency Based Training and Assessment

Participants enrolled in training which will lead to either a Statement of Attainment or Certificate are required to complete Assessments to demonstrate competency. Competency based assessment is the process of gathering evidence to confirm that Participants can perform required skills and knowledge.

Assessments undertaken may include:

- Written/oral Assessments
- Practical demonstrations
- Completion of case studies and similar activities
- Development of a portfolio
- Work samples
- Third party reports

You will be given feedback on all Assessment Activities. Competency based assessment does not use a marking scale rather you are deemed "competent" or "not yet competent".

Please make sure that you attach an Assessment Coversheet to all Assessments. These are provided by Elite Truck and Car School and must be signed by you. Please always include the question/task you are addressing.

Credit Transfer

You may be eligible for a Credit Transfer if you have previously undertaken training through a Registered Training Organisation. Credit Transfer may be granted for one or more units. Three (3) major factors need to be considered:

1. How current the Qualification/Statement of Attainment is
2. Mapping to the current training and
3. If the training was undertaken with a Registered Training Organisation.

If you think you may be eligible for a Credit Transfer you will need to provide the following:

- The original Statement of Attainment and/or Certificate for your Trainer to sight

- A copy of the Statement of Attainment and/or Certificate
- Or a certified copy of your signed Statement of Attainment and/or Certificate by a Justice of the Peace (JP)
- There is no charge for Credit Transfer

All applications for Credit Transfer will need to be verified with the issuing RTO to ensure its validity. In order to do this the Student will need to complete a “Release of Information form”. This form will be sent to the issuing RTO to gain confirmation that they issued the qualification/statement of attainment, accompanied by a copy of your qualification or statement of attainment.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

RPL is the process of formal recognition for skills and knowledge gained through previous learning such as:

- Life experiences
- Previous formal learning
- Employment
- Recreational or personal interests

You may be eligible for RPL for part or all of your intended study, based on your previous experiences and learning. For more information regarding RPL and how to apply, please discuss this with your Trainer.

Complaints and Appeals

Elite Truck and Car School is dedicated to providing a high standard of service. Should you have a complaint or wish to appeal an assessment result, you are encouraged to do so by using the following processes:

Complaints

Complaints are the expression of the dissatisfaction with the quality or any aspect of the business operations and service, including nuisances, discrimination or similar against another person, inclusive of Participants, Staff and Contractors.

The following are examples of issues for which you may lodge a complaint:

- Enrolment
- Training delivery

- Training and/or assessment, including Recognition of Prior Learning
- Any other activities associated with the delivery of training and assessment services
- Issues such as discrimination, sexual harassment, participant amenities, etc.

First instance: You are encouraged to speak immediately with your Trainer. If you are not comfortable addressing the issue with the Trainer you are encouraged to contact the Training Manager.

Second instance: If the issue is not resolved you are encouraged to either speak to or contact in writing the CEO.

Third instance: If the matter is still not resolved an independent third party will be requested to assist with resolution. Third parties may include relevant training representative(s), legal representative(s) e.g. Anti-discrimination board or other relevant personnel.

Outcomes of complaints will be provided to you in writing within fifteen (15) working days of the decision.

In the event that a complaint has been lodged, an Incident/Complaint Form must be completed and forwarded to the CEO immediately, even if the situation has been resolved to the satisfaction of all parties.

Fourth instance: If you are not satisfied with the outcome then an external party will be called upon to mediate and liaise with both parties in an attempt to resolve the issue. Any cost of such external party will be shared equally between the RTO and the complainant.

Please be advised that if you are not satisfied with this procedure you have the right to contact the Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) by completing the complaints form at;
<http://www.asqa.gov.au/complaints/making-a-complaint.html>

Appeals

Appeals are the expression of the dissatisfaction of an assessment result. This would occur when a Participant has been deemed not yet competent and does not agree with this decision.

There are various grounds for lodging an assessment appeal. These include, but are not limited to:

- Not being fully informed of the assessment process
- Participant's needs not taken into consideration
- The assessment process is different to that outlined by the trainer/assessor
- Assessment process not based on training package/unit of competence requirements

- An inappropriate method used to assess the training package/unit of competence
- Alleged bias of the trainer/assessor
- Alleged incompetence of the trainer/assessor
- Faulty or inappropriate equipment or facilities

Step 1

You must discuss appealing an assessment outcome and/or the assessment process with your Trainer/Assessor involved.

(This step must commence within ten (10) working days of the assessment outcome being advised).

Step 2

If still not satisfied, you must complete the Assessment Appeals Form - Part A and forward to the CEO.

(This should occur within five (5) working days of Step 1)

Step 3

The assessment is to be reviewed by a different Assessor and the results of the review summarised on the Assessment Appeals Form. You are to be advised of the appeals outcome within ten (10) working days.

(This should occur within ten 10 working days of Step 2)

Step 4

If still not satisfied with the outcome of the appeal, your appeal is to be reviewed by the CEO. The CEO will send an acknowledgement letter to you, record the receipt of the Assessment Appeals Form, then review. The CEO if necessary will convene a review panel to thoroughly examine the appeal.

(You are to be advised of the outcome within ten (10) working days).

Step 5

If you are not satisfied with the outcome then an external party will be called upon to mediate and liaise with both parties in an attempt to resolve the issue. Any cost of such external party will be shared equally between the RTO and the appellant.

You are advised that if you are not satisfied with this procedure they have the right to contact the Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) by completing the complaints form at;

<http://www.asqa.gov.au/complaints/making-a-complaint.html>

Access to Participant Records

You may wish to access your records to check on work completed, progress or for other reasons. Please organise with your Trainer a time suitable to view your training records. Other parties will not be permitted to access your files without written consent from you.

Release of Contact Details and Information

To ensure that Registered Training Organisations meet the national standards and offer quality training to Participants, ASQA conducts regular audits. The audit process involves a review of a training organisation's Policies, Procedures, Record keeping and practices. On occasions ASQA may contact past and present training Participants to conduct an interview to confirm that the organisation is complying with its obligations and providing a service which meets the needs of Participants and industry.

Upon request Elite Truck and Car School is required to supply the following information to ASQA:

- Contact details including address, telephone numbers and email address

For audit purposes and in the event of a complaint or appeal, ASQA may request to view your files. The purpose of this is to ensure compliance with regulations and standards.

Privacy Policy

Elite Truck and Car School will collect information, manage, use it and disclose it in a way that complies with the Privacy Act 1988 (Commonwealth), as amended in the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector 2000)

Elite Truck and Car School will:

- Where information is provided by another person, ensure that collection has been authorised by the individual concerned, or by someone who is legally authorised to act on their behalf.
- Only collect information by lawful and fair means and not in an unreasonably intrusive way
- Protect archived personal information from loss or unauthorised access, use, disclosure, or misuse and from inappropriate modification

Change of Personal Details

Should you change any of your personal details please request a Change of Enrolment Information Form from your Trainer. Such details include, address, surname, contact telephone number etc.

Results

You will receive your Assessment feedback and result within ten (10) working days of submission.

On completion of a Qualification or Unit of Competence, Elite Truck and Car School will issue Statements of Attainment/ Certificates within thirty (30) calendar days.

Please note: If you require a Statement of Attainment to be issued during your enrolment, you will need to notify the Elite Truck and Car School office. You will then receive a Tax Invoice for $20 plus GST. This must be paid prior to receiving your Statement of Attainment and can be paid via Direct Debit, Credit Card.

What if I need my Certificate or Statement of Attainment to be re-issued?

In the event of a lost or damaged Certificate or Statement of Attainment, please complete the Change of Enrolment Information Form to request re-issuance of a Certificate or Statement of Attainment and return with payment of $15 inclusive of GST.

Evaluation

Your feedback is particularly important to our commitment to ongoing improvement. Throughout your training you will be asked to provide your thoughts and comments on the training received. Elite Truck and Car School encourages all Participants to make contact should they wish to provide feedback or comments on any aspect of the service received.

Relevant legislation to be complied with

Work Health and Safety Act

The Work Health and Safety Act provides a framework for managing health and safety risks in Australian workplaces. The objective of the Act is to prevent fatalities, injuries and illness caused by a workplace, by workplace activities or by a specified high risk plant - this is achieved by preventing or minimising exposure to risk. All organisations must comply with this Act, regardless of the types of services and/or products they provide or sell. For more information visit:
